This being the last holiday workshop before the PSLE, all key sections of the English Paper 2 will be covered:

- Synthesis and Transformation
- Grammar
- Preposition
- Spelling
- Vocabulary
- Comprehension Cloze
- Comprehension Open-Ended

By now, most students would have done numerous revision worksheets and practice papers. Besides practising questions to keep the momentum going, what students really need is for their teachers to consolidate their learning, highlight important concepts, remind them the pitfalls and common mistakes to avoid, and learn the examination skills in order to excel in the examination.

The focus of the 2-day workshop is to provide help to the abovementioned need of the students. In a small group setting, focused teaching on the various key aspects of the English paper 2 will be conducted, complemented with notes and questions to assess and reinforce the students' learning.

During the workshop, students will be taught the following:

- Key concepts and learning pointing that students should be familiar with
- Questions that students should know how to answer before the examination
- Common mistakes that students make in English Paper 2
- Strategies and examination tips to do well
- Clarification on common misconceptions

- Commonly misspelt words
- Vocabulary that students should know before the examination

In addition to exposure to a wide variety of questions, students will also be provided supplementary notes on word classes, tenses, Subject-Verb Agreement, ... etc, and reference learning sheets on Spelling and Vocabulary.
